Retooling and Recalibrating Programs to Build Capacities Using Strengths-based Lens

Home Educator Capacity Building: Embracing Exuberant Learners

Integrate Cultural and Linguistic Responsiveness with Trauma Sensitive Practice into Family Support Programs. We offer support with your intentional effort to transfer ownership of knowledge. Expand your reach, strengthen content, and facilitate efficacious implementation. Infuse tenants of current research to retool your parenting programs and build capacity. Successful programs can move beyond basic behavior modification strategies to a multi-level approach. Strong outcomes for family, child, and cultural liaisons are essential for program fidelity. Recalibrate programs to also nurture Fathers as children's first teachers.
