

Our Philosophy

We believe in the value of partnering to build the capacity of your learning communities, agencies, and organizations so that your teams are well-equipped to successfully coach children and families into The Thrive Zone.

You take such good care of children and families. You also deserve to benefit from a strong professional partnership.

Coaching Teams into The Thrive Zone

Building the Capacity of Professional Learning Communities; Administrators, Caregivers, Teachers, Parents, Cultural Liaisons, and Home Visitors

Attunement: Building Protective Factors in families and Family Partners

The Heart of Early Learning series, I, II, III

Why we are strong partners: Synergy

We recognize that strong leaders benefit from a fresh knowledgeable perspective, Culturally Responsive, Relevant, Trauma Sensitive strategies, positive energy, and clear Assets-based action plans.

We partner with your organization and build on your strengths. We support your efforts to build the capacity of the children and families you teach, guide and coach.

Strengths-based Collaborative Leadership (high expectations)

Parents are leaders of their families
(Home Teacher)

Teachers are leaders of their classrooms
(Classroom Teacher)

Administrators are leaders of the learning community

Cultural Liaisons, and Home Visitors are bridges to resiliency
(Social Services)
